PETER GREGG FOUNDATION CALL FOR SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANTS

Apply online at petergreggfoundation.org through July 1, 2021

MONTEREY, CA, May 1, 2021 -- Veteran Trans Am Series driver and founder of Peter Gregg Foundation, Simon Gregg,, is at WeatherTech Laguna Seca Raceway to drive in the TA class. But he's also here with a special message for aspiring young mechanics.

"The Trans Am Series presented by Pirelli has some of the finest pit crews in professional motorsports," Gregg said. "I want to invite everyone in the series to encourage talented young people to apply for a scholarship with my foundation."

Each scholarship is valued at approximately $100,000 and includes a three month training program, followed by a professional internship in the Fall, according to Gregg. Gregg said interested applicants can apply online at the foundation's website.

"The work we're doing with Peter Gregg Foundation is possible thanks to the support of so many fellow drivers, teams and friends," Gregg said.

"I want to acknowledge and personally thank the Trans Am Series presented by Pirelli for giving me time in the booth with you today and at every race. Everyone with the organization has been very good to me and the response to the foundation has been overwhelming and heartwarming," Gregg said.

Gregg added, "I also want to thank Claudio Burtin, my entire team at Burtin Racing, including my co-driver, Tomy Drissi, my friend Bill Warner, and his team at Concours d'Elegance, Kevin Buckler and his team at Adobe Road Winery, and of course, our outstanding staff at Peter Gregg Foundation."

Everyone here at the track today is invited to visit the Burtin Racing paddock next to the technical inspection trailer to pick up a foundation brochure," said the foundation's media manager, Anita Feltman. "If you run into Simon, ask him to autograph a hero card for yourself or a loved one," Feltman said.
